There are many islands in the sea near Scotland. This story is about one of these islands. The name of the island is Lana.

Lana isn't big, but it's very beautiful. It's very quiet, too. There are no houses or roads or cars on Lana. But there's a castle. The castle is very old.

A young Scotsman lives in the castle. The Scotsman's name is Duncan McTavish. Duncan lives in the castle with his dog, Jock.

Duncan is very happy on his island. He likes going for walks with Jock. He likes swimming and fishing in his little boat.

There are many big rooms in Duncan's castle. They have a lot of old things in them – pictures and heavy tables, chairs and beds.

In winter the castle is very cold and dark. Duncan puts on a lot of electric lights in all the rooms.

sale /seɪl/ (n) This boat is for sale. Do you want to buy it?

island /'aɪlənd/ (n) There are a lot of islands in the North Sea.

castle /'kɑːsl/ (n) In the afternoon, we are going to visit Windsor Castle.

fish /fɪʃ/ (v/n) He likes fishing in the river at weekends.

electric /ɪ'lektrɪk/ (adj) There are no electric lights in the house; there is no electricity here.

One Monday morning in April, Duncan gets a letter.

'What's this?' he asks.

He opens the letter. It's from the electricity company. Duncan reads,

Electricity from October to March: £5,000.

'Oh,' Duncan says. 'I haven't got £5,000. What can I do?' He's very unhappy. 'I can do only one thing: sell my island and my castle.'

Duncan telephones a man in London. The man's name is Mr Moneybags. Mr Moneybags sells houses and castles.

'I want to sell my island and my castle,' Duncan says.

'OK,' Mr Moneybags says.

company /'kʌmpəni/ (n) I have a small taxi company with ten drivers.
sell /sel/ (v) I sell my photographs to newspapers.

Two days later, he telephones Duncan.

'Leaping Larry wants to buy your island,' he says.

'Leaping Larry. You know – the famous American music star. He wants to buy your island for his friend.'

'A music star,' Duncan says. 'Oh.'

'He wants to see the island tomorrow afternoon,' Mr Moneybags says. 'Is that OK?'

'Er . . . yes,' Duncan says. 'Yes, of course.'

Leaping Larry and his friend are coming to the island by helicopter. They're very late. Duncan and Jock wait a long time.

Then the helicopter arrives. A tall man with long dark hair gets down from it. He's about forty-five years old. There's a girl with him. She's about twenty and has long yellow hair. There's a small animal with her. The animal has long white hair.

'Hi,' the man says. 'I'm Leaping Larry. And this is my friend, Roxanne.'

leap /li:p/ (v) Can you leap across that river?

helicopter /'helɪkɒptə/ (n) The police helicopter is looking for a small child.

'Hi,' Roxanne says. 'This is my dog, Bobo.'

Larry looks at the castle.

'Look at that old castle, Roxanne,' he says. 'Don't you love it, honey?'

Roxanne doesn't smile. It's only an old castle.

Leaping Larry and Roxanne go into the castle. It's very dark.

Leaping Larry can't see. He falls down.

'Where are the lights?' he asks.

'I'm sorry,' Duncan says. 'There isn't any light. The company stopped my electricity this morning.'

'I want some hot food,' Roxanne says.

honey /'hani/ (n) I have fruit and honey every morning.

'I'm sorry,' Duncan says, 'but I can't make hot food. I haven't got any electricity. But there is some cold food.'

'Cold food!' Roxanne says. 'No, thank you! I'm going to bed. But first I want a hot bath. And Bobo wants a bath, too.'

'I'm very sorry,' Duncan says. 'But there's no hot water.'

'No lights! No food! No hot water!'

'Honey, what's wrong?' Larry asks.

'There was a noise in the room,' Roxanne says. 'What was it?'

Duncan starts to smile.

'Why are you smiling?' Roxanne says. She's very angry.

Roxanne doesn't answer. She says to Larry, 'Larry, I don't like this place. I want to go home.'

'But, honey . . . ' Larry says.

'Don't call me "honey"! ' Roxanne says. 'This castle is old, dark and very cold. There's no electricity, no food and no hot water. And I don't like it. Do you understand?'

'Listen, honey,' Larry says. 'We can build a big new house here. Our friends from California can come and stay.'
